

Food Dudes Matching Pairs

What you'll need:

- 1) Mom or Dad to help you
- 2) Printer loaded with A4 paper
- 3) Scissors
- 4) Glue stick
- 5) 4 sheets of A4 cardstock paper (you could use the front and back panels of 2x450g cereal boxes)

Instructions:

- 1) Print out this document (You should then have 2 x instruction sheets & 4 x character sheets.)
- 2) Using scissors, cut along the black lines. You should now have 16 separate character cards.
- 3) Lay cards out on card stock paper/cereal panels.
- 4) Using glue, stick character cards to the card stock/cereal panel (when using cereal box panels be sure to stick character cards to the illustrated side).
- 5) Using scissors cut around the character cards.
- 6) You should now have 16 reinforced character cards.
- 7) Play Food Dudes matching pairs!

How to play Food Dudes Matching Pairs:

Suitable for 2-6 players

Objective: To remember where the matching pairs lie and to win the most pairs of cards.

Instructions:

- 1) Pick dealer .
- 2) Dealer lays cards on playing surface in a 4 x 6 format.
- 3) Player to the left of the dealer goes first.
- 4) Player 1 turns over 2 cards. All players can look to see what cards have been turned over.
- 5) If those cards are the same (e.g. 2 x Charlie), the player can keep that pair of cards. If those cards are not the same (e.g. Charlie & Rocco), player must turn the cards back over so that they are in the same place as they were before.
- 6) Game continues in a clockwise direction until all pairs have been won.
- 7) Winner is the player who has collected most pairs.
- 8) If players wish to play again, player to the left of the original dealer now deals and player to the left of him/her goes first.
